TERMS OF SERVICE:

1. The Client will tender 50% of the contract price and a minimum of five clear photographs. The photographs may be emailed, on disc, or standard photographs. No professional, trademarked photographs may be used.
2. The artwork will be completed (not necessarily delivered) by the above date.
3. A photograph of the completed work will emailed or mailed to the client for approval prior to mailing or otherwise delivering the original work. The client must acknowledge receipt and approval of the photo proof prior to delivery of the original work.
4. If the proof is rejected, the Artist will have three weeks in which to create a new portrait. If the second portrait is rejected, the Artist will immediately return the Client's photographs and downpayment and this contract will be null and void.
5. The Artist reserves the right to reproduce the portrait for use in advertisements, displays, art shows, etc. with proper acknowledgements of the Client. However, the Artist agrees not to reproduce the portrait en masse for further profit without an additional written agreement, terms to be negotiated on a per case basis.
6. The Artist does not employ an agent, thus being the only party capable of coming to an agreement with the Client.

By Signing below, the Artist and Client do hereby mutually agree to the above-stated terms. This written contract constitutes the entire agreement, and any further agreement(s) must be made in writing and attached to this contract.
